

Welcome to Gosford Hospital Centre for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE)

Chaplains Office
Level 4, Gosford Hospital
Holden St
GOSFORD NSW 2250

This Centre conducts courses in CPE with a focus on the provision of pastoral care in an acute care hospital. We also support newly employed pastoral care providers meet employer training requirements for residential/Aged care and prison ministries.

ACTING CENTRE DIRECTOR

Rev Frank Wortley has been supervising with the NSW College of CPE since 2014. Frank has 38 years of chaplaincy experience in the Australian Defence Force and the public health system and has significant formal training in chaplaincy and an MA in Pastoral Supervision. Frank is also the Senior Chaplain at Gosford Hospital and the Coordinating Chaplain for the Central Coast Local Health District. He is passionate about the need to have well-trained people who are able to work in both the church and in public space ministry.

What courses are offered?

Both the CPE Introductory Unit (40 hours) and Foundational and Advance Units (both 400 hours) are offered.

INTRODUCTORY UNIT.

This 40-hour course prepares volunteers who want to pastorally care for patients as hospital visitors. It meets the minimum requirement for all authorised visiting within NSW Health Department Facilities. Topics discussed include the ethos of pastoral care, listening skills, self-awareness, grief and loss issues, wellness, hospital protocols, role-plays of visiting and discovering our spirituality.

FOUNDATIONAL and ADVANCED UNITS.

These 400-hour courses allow trainees to engage in active listening at the bedside with patients, to reflect on the conversation in both a group situation and privately with their supervisor and then carry the learning from these encounters to the next conversation with the patients. They train practitioners in both general and specialist ministries.

Who can apply?

- Parish workers and volunteers (Placements for the period of training are in Gosford and Wyong Hospitals or another Local Health District Hospital by agreement.)
- Those wishing to be employed in pastoral and spiritual care and chaplaincy
